Rye Oak Primary School currently has one vacancy for a catering assistant to work in the school kitchen. As a good school, we are all committed to making a positive difference to the lives of our children. We are a friendly and supportive community looking for a new passionate team member to join our outstanding team in providing efficient and friendly service of our award-winning school lunches to fulfil every child's right to nutritional food (article 27).

We can offer you:

- A vibrant, hardworking and forward-thinking school with the drive and determination to offer the best
- The opportunity to be part of a dedicated, talented and supportive award-winning team who are recent winners of APPG Excellence in School Food Awards - Best School 2023
- Excellent opportunities to gain experience and skills in modern, nutritional cooking for schools
- Enthusiastic, motivated and friendly children who are empowered to do their best
- A well-established working environment with safe working practices and systems

If you are:

- Passionate about food and able to build excellent relationships
- A motivated team player who would enjoy and has experience of working in a busy kitchen environment
- Enthusiastic about supporting all children to develop a healthy body and mind
- A hardworking individual who is flexible, organised and efficient
- A positive professional committed to their own professional development - willing to learn - and dedicated to children coming first then we would welcome your application.
