WHAT IS IT?

A simple scheme that does not promise or even try to eradicate domestic abuse, but focuses on the child's day at school and understanding why their behaviour may be different.

A decorative graphic consisting of several parallel white lines of varying lengths, slanted upwards from left to right, located in the bottom right corner of the slide.

Police called to domestic incident where school age children are present.

Officers gather information and create a report.

MASH Police team run search and any reports that fit criteria, the school is known and participating will generate a referral.

WHAT IS IT NOT?

- It is not compulsory
 - It is not a requirement or request to get involved in a police investigation
 - It is not a system to circumvent existing safeguarding protocols
 - It is not a flood of extra work for DSL
